HELLO

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the Harpur Trust, one of Britain's largest charities, founded by Sir William Harpur in 1566.

At the Trust, we have a vision of Bedford as a place where everyone has pride in their community and is inspired and supported in realising their potential. Our charitable objects are:

- Providing and promoting education
- Offering help and relief to anyone who is sick, in need, hardship or distress
- Providing recreational facilities with a social welfare purpose.

To achieve our vision we operate four schools and we sponsor the Bedford Academy, we make grants of approximately £1million a year to local organisations and individuals within the borough of Bedford , offer accommodation for older people and engage in social policy work.

We employ around 1,200 employees, most of whom work in our four Harpur Trust schools in Bedford providing first class, selective education for over 3,500 pupils.

We are governed by 26 Trustees who have a legal responsibility for all of our activities and to ensure that our charitable objects are carried out. Our Trustees sit on a variety of Trust/School Committees and come from various walks of life. Unlike our employees, the Trustees are not paid for the services they provide; they are all volunteers.

The Harpur Trust Offices (HTO) can be found in the Pilgrim Centre on Brickhill Drive, Bedford where our Governance/Administration, Fees, Grants, Payroll, External Relations and our central Accounts, Finance and HR departments are based.

Each and every person in the Trust is important to our on-going success and, with your commitment and endeavour, we will continue to build on the legacy of Sir William Harpur, supporting generations of people within the local community and the pupils at our schools, now and for many years to come.

If you would like to find out more about The Harpur Trust, our heritage, our many success stories and the work we are currently doing in and around Bedford, then why not attend one of our Harpur Trust Information Presentations which are held every September and January.

David Russell

Chief Executive, The Harpur Trust

MANAGING ATTENDANCE

THE HARPUR TRUST IS COMMITTED TO SUPPORTING ALL OUR EMPLOYEES TO ACHIEVE FULL ATTENDANCE AT WORK

SICKNESS ABSENCE – We recognise there may be occasions when you are unable to attend work due to sickness. If you need to take time off for sickness, you are required to notify the appropriate person at your place of work no later than one hour prior to your normal start time, wherever possible.

Upon your return from any period of sickness absence, you will be required to provide certification in respect of your period of absence. This will either be a 'self-certification' form, which you can obtain from your intranet site or the HR department if the absence is seven days or less, or a 'fit-note' that will be issued by your GP for any absences over seven calendar days.

Your line manager will conduct a return to work interview with you to ensure that you are fit and able to return to work.

You may be entitled to paid time off for sickness absence. For further details please refer to both your contract of employment and the Managing Sickness Absence Policy. If you have any questions regarding sickness absence or entitlement to sick pay, your HR department will be happy to assist you. Click Here

Medical and related appointments should, wherever possible, be arranged outside of working hours. If this is not possible, then you may take reasonable time off to attend appointments.

SALARY SACRIFICE ARRANGEMENT - The Trust has implemented a voluntary salary sacrifice (reduced gross salary) scheme which is a tax efficient way of making savings as follows (conditions apply):

- Childcare vouchers
- Pension contributions (not applicable for TPS): If you join the Salary Sacrifice Scheme your pension contributions will be calculated on the basis of your gross pay before the reduction for salary sacrifice is made thereby enabling savings on National Insurance contributions

Further details of the benefits above are available from your HR Department.

FAMILY FRIENDLY

THE HARPUR TRUST OPERATES A FAMILY FRIENDLY POLICY WHICH INCLUDES:

MATERNITY – All pregnant employees, regardless of the number of hours they work or their length of service with The Harpur Trust, are entitled to a period of 52 weeks Maternity Leave subject to notification requirements. This leave is divided into 26 weeks Ordinary Maternity Leave (OML) and 26 weeks Additional Maternity Leave (AML).

Employees who have completed a minimum of 26 weeks continuous service by the 15th week before the Expected Week of Childbirth (EWC) will be entitled to Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP). SMP is payable for up to 39 weeks during Maternity Leave. The first six weeks of SMP are payable at 90% of average weekly earnings. The remaining 33 weeks are paid at either the current rate of SMP or 90% of the employee's average weekly earnings, whichever is the lesser.

Provided that you have completed one year's continuous service by the end of the qualifying week, you will be entitled to Enhanced Maternity Pay. If you are entitled to Enhanced Maternity Pay, the first 6 weeks of your Maternity Leave are paid at 100% of your average weekly earnings (including SMP). The following 6 weeks of your Maternity Leave are paid at 50% of your average weekly earnings (including SMP). For the remaining period (up to 27 weeks) you will be paid at the lesser of either Statutory Maternity Pay or 90% of your average weekly earnings (provided you qualify for the Lower Earnings Level).

Regardless of length of service, pregnant employees are entitled to paid time off to keep appointments for antenatal care made on the advice of a registered medical practitioner, registered midwife or registered health visitor. If you have any questions relating to either Maternity Leave or entitlement to Maternity Pay, your HR Department will be happy to assist you.

SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE - Shared Parental Leave is a type of leave that enables eligible mothers, fathers, partners and adopters to choose how to share time off work after their child is born or placed. This could mean that the mother or adopter shares some of the leave with their partner, perhaps returning to work for part of the time and then resuming leave at a later date.

The partner of the employee should approach their own employer if they wish to take Shared Parental Leave. The partner's employer may require the Trust to disclose information relating to the maternity leave the mother has taken. In these circumstances HR will discuss this with the employee before any information is disclosed. The mother and the partner should ensure that they are each liaising with their own employer to ensure that requests for Shared Parental Leave are handled as smoothly as possible

PATERNITY – The rights to Paternity Leave and Statutory Paternity Pay (SPP) allow qualifying employees whose partner, spouse or civil partner has had a baby, to take paid leave to care for the baby or to support the mother following the birth of a child. The same rights to Paternity Leave and SPP apply to adoption (unless you are to be the main carer of an adopted child in which case, please refer to the Adoption Policy summarised below).

Eligible employees may choose to take either one or two consecutive weeks statutory Ordinary Paternity Leave (OPL). It cannot be taken as odd days or as two separate weeks. The Trust will pay eligible employees five days paid Paternity Leave as part of either the statutory OPL two week entitlement, or as part of any period of Additional Paternity Leave that is taken. The remaining period of Paternity Leave will be paid at the prevailing rate of Statutory Paternity Pay (SPP).

ADOPTION – Subject to meeting eligibility criteria; employees are entitled to up to 26 weeks Ordinary Adoption Leave (OAL) followed immediately by up to 26 weeks Additional Adoption Leave (AAL) – a total of up to 52 weeks' leave.

During periods of Adoption Leave, employees are entitled to Statutory Adoption Pay (SAP) from the Trust for a period of up to 39 weeks. The weekly SAP amount will be the same as the standard rate of Statutory Maternity Pay or 90% of normal weekly earnings (whichever is lower). For details of the current rate, please contact your HR Department or the Payroll Department at the HTO.

PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY – After one year’s continuous employment with the Trust, employees may be entitled to take up to 18 weeks’ Parental Leave for each child for whom they are legally responsible. Your entitlement to Parental Leave will be reduced by the amount of Parental Leave taken in connection with that child and with previous employers. Parental Leave is unpaid. Employees are not entitled to any remuneration under the terms of their contract during any period of Parental Leave. Parental Leave may only be taken in multiples of a week, giving your manager not less than 21 days’ notice in writing.

FLEXIBLE WORKING -The Trust recognises the importance of helping its employees balance their work and home life by offering flexible working arrangements. In turn, it recognises that operational demands must always be met. You can request to change the hours you work, or change the times when you are required to work. All employees have a statutory right to request flexible working provided they have employee status, have been continuously employed by the Trust for 26 weeks; and they have not made a previous application for flexible working in the past 12 months.

TIME OFF FOR DEPENDANTS/EMERGENCY DAYS – The Harpur Trust also recognises that time off may be needed for domestic emergencies such as caring for an unwell dependant. In such circumstances you must notify your manager at the earliest possible opportunity to discuss the reasons for the absence. The Trust allows up to three paid emergency days in any academic year to allow employees to deal with unexpected emergency situations.
